

EMPOWERMENT

~ REMEMBRANCE ~

The Empowerment Series for Remembrance helps you to remember who and what you are as a totality of consciousness.

Forgetting was a choice that each of us made prior to human embodiment. It is one of the most valid experiences that we can have as an evolving soul and one that rewards us with depth and breadth of understanding, especially at the level of human emotion.

We have been through all the cycles of forgetfulness in this dense reality that masterfully veils us through a curtain of duality and linear sequences. We now know what it is like to live in one dimension at a time, limited through the code of time.

This play of illusion has greatly enriched and is forever weaved in the tapestry of our universal consciousness. We are eternally grateful as we now expand into other levels of our creation.

INVOCATIONS:

Use this invocation every day of the week, preferably in the morning as a way to begin your day feeling empowered as one with your Greater Self. Then, follow up this invocation with one or several affirmations.

AFFIRMATIONS:

There is one affirmation for each day of the week to help you remember who you are as a majestic creator being of light, love and tremendous wisdom. Keep affirming your Self as you step into this greater expression of who you really are.

WEEK 1

THE EMPOWERMENT OF REMEMBRANCE

INVOCATION

I AM THE GREATER SELF

In the name of total empowerment, I acknowledge the blazing light of my true Self, burning bright within me.

With deep gratitude, I bow to this inner Presence, allowing the full embodiment of my perfection to come forth now.

By and through universal law, I decree:

My human biology is revealing the unimaginable brilliance of my dormant potential.

The light of grace is flooding my entire consciousness, inspiring harmony and beauty wherever I go.

My perceptions are shifting into wholeness and acceptance, unveiling the truth of my divine nature.

Beloved Presence, please send forth the light of remembrance to penetrate deep into the mass consciousness, restoring peace to the global mind through Self-empowered union.

Thy Will be done.

WEEK 1
AFFIRMATIONS OF REMEMBRANCE

* I am remembering my origins from the stars. I come from another timeline of no time; of eternal light. I do not need to strive to evolve. I am already evolved. I am pure and holy by my own true nature.

* I am a spirit having a human experience. I agreed to incarnate in a world where a great transformation is taking place. I chose to come into a very dense and limited reality, knowing the connection with the true nature of my own existence would be forgotten. I also agreed to allow fear and separation to be my greatest teachers. I am now awakening from this dream and remembering who I am as pure consciousness.

* I am an aspect of my Creator experiencing itself in my physical form. There is no other recognition possible. I am a multidimensional intelligence. Consciousness does not exist within my human body. My body exists within my vast awareness.

* I am an individualized consciousness that resides inside the body of God awareness. I live, move and have my entire being inside the body of divine perfection. I am made in this image and likeness. I am a unique and beautiful way that Creation is expressing itself through me as a human channel.

* I am a beautiful child of God. Through grace, I bring beauty and harmony to all aspects of my life and surroundings. I see the divinity in all things. I see harmony in all of nature. There is beauty in the eyes of each and every soul.

* I am realizing my true Self as an eternal and limitless being, one with the Divine Presence. Any focus of identity to the "me" personality is now shifting to the greater being that resides within me in the background of my consciousness.

* I live as Divine Presence. Attachment to my personality identity is releasing including any energy of self-importance and any notions of who I think I am. I am the reality that exists behind all creation, that which transcends all human-created labels.

WEEK 2

THE EMPOWERMENT OF REMEMBRANCE

INVOCATION

I AM THE CREATOR

Great Divine Presence of my being, please charge the universal light throughout my body, thoughts and energy field, raising my vibration into one of total harmony and pure love.

As I am bathed in this field of transforming energy...

The inspiration of my Greater Self is expanding within my mind.

My full Creator God potential is now awakening.

The wisdom of my Greater Self is empowering all of my life's reflections.

Please extend this blessing of inspired remembrance to enfold my entire Earth family, that we may co-create a world of beauty, peace and joy.

Let ultimate creativity burst forth in every human life.

We are so grateful and blessed.

WEEK 2
AFFIRMATIONS OF REMEMBRANCE

* I came to this planet to experience physical existence and to discover that everything in this reality is made up from projections of consciousness. Physical reality is within my consciousness. Physical reality is determined by my consciousness.

* I am made in the image and likeness of my Source. I am a powerful creator. I can accept or decline any reflection that is revealing in my reality. By constantly invalidating the polarized perception, new portals of consciousness reveal right in front of me.

* Whatever I am thinking, feeling and projecting, whether consciously or unconsciously, I send right into a mirror that gives me back a reflection. These reflections form my life experiences. To understand my personal reality, I simply look into the mirror.

* It is to always remember that I am the creator. I have the ultimate choice to accept any variation of reality that I so desire. How I choose to perceive something is in and of itself, another idea, another universe, and another reality.

* The reality that I am currently living is exactly tuned to the vibration that I am giving off. If I want to see anything change in my reality, I have to change first so that mirror of experience can reflect a different picture. I am in control of the mirror by what I perceive to be true.

* When I focus all of my thoughts, words and actions on the highest good of all, I am operating in alignment with the Universe, and I begin to live, perceive and create from the Divine Consciousness within.

* I remember inspiration. By acting upon my highest inspiration and excitement at every moment, I am guaranteed to be operating in the highest resonant frequency of my true self. This is my cue that the Greater Self is expressing.

WEEK 3

THE EMPOWERMENT OF REMEMBRANCE

INVOCATION

I AM LOVE

In the name of all that is sacred, I ask that my entire field of consciousness be saturated with the most profound love of my true Self.

May the bridge of light that bonds me to this Divine Presence be expanded to receive a greater influx of love, catapulting me into the bliss of remembrance.

Dear God, with deep compassion, please send a giant wave of transforming love to sweep across the Earth, blessing all in its path.

Pour this unifying energy into the core reflection of all conflict, hatred, selfishness and division.

Restore wholeness and purity to the hearts and minds of every person.

Thank you for helping us to love without exception.

WEEK 3
AFFIRMATIONS OF REMEMBRANCE

- * I was born out of love. I am evolving through love. I am ascending back into love. I am all love and I am so grateful.

- * The pathway that I walk leads only to love. My body is filled with love and it is invincible. Love in my mind ensures the expression of divine thought. Love in my feelings reassures that God is the only power acting. I am thinking, feeling and remembering only love.

- * I am within God. God is within me. I am the human aspect of my Creator and one unified whole. I love myself, completely. By loving myself, I am loving my Source. By loving my Source, I love myself, and all others.

- * I am Divine Love in radiant expression. I silently and powerfully radiate my love, everywhere without exception. My love goes before me to heal and harmonize every condition in my life. Oh spirit of the living Presence within me, I now know your love and I can really feel it. I am this love, every day, every hour, every moment.

- * I serve as the potent expression of Divine Love in action. Through this purity, my greater love gives constantly, as its inherent nature. It requires nothing back in return. My example is benevolence. I love as God loves. I give as God gives.

- * I am now progressing beyond personality love and into an expansion of consciousness that realizes the Self as a vibrant and powerful center of fundamental, universal love. I am blessed with an expanded capacity to serve the human race.

- * I give my all to the expression of Divine Love upon the planet. The light of love through me wields its cohesive power, leading and sustaining everything into integration, unity and inclusiveness.

WEEK 4

THE EMPOWERMENT OF REMEMBRANCE

INVOCATION

I AM SACRED RELATIONSHIP

In the name of Unity Consciousness, I invoke a profound expansion of divine intimacy with my Greater Self.

We are feeling together as one unified whole.

May this all-pervading Presence blazing within my heart, assist my full transition into holistic-identification, lifting my thoughts far above the limited beliefs of the personality consciousness.

Great Spirit, please send forth a mighty surge of forgiveness to bless the collective heart-mind of humanity.

Help us to see the innocence in one another, that we might love each other as the Divine loves us.

Unite us on Earth as we are united in the mind of God.

The truth of our sacred relationship is now revealing.

WEEK 4
AFFIRMATIONS OF REMEMBRANCE

- * All things in the universe are infinitely interconnected. Everything is a representing the larger whole. I am a unique spark of light that permanently resides within this vast body called God awareness. I am existence itself. Wholeness resides within me.

- * All life is sacred relationship. I come into being through interconnected relationships. Every relationship in my life is a mirror reflecting my real nature. I am learning to love each of them for what they are as reflections back to myself.

- * I am a part of a larger whole. My personality is not real. My emotions, my mind and my body are not real. They are merely instruments constantly changing. The only real lasting substance is that part of my consciousness that pristinely vibrates to an all-encompassing group tone.

- * I am remembering who I am as pure beauty. This is does not have anything to do with how I look. It is everything to do with how I feel. If I feel beautiful, I am beautiful. If I feel beautiful on the inside, I radiate this beauty everywhere I go.

- * To love thy neighbor as thyself is to truly be the Divine Presence seeing through human eyes. This Divine Presence lives within all life as it lives within me. I can look upon all of my outer reflections without the slightest hint of judgment or separation.

- * Identifying with the Greater Self is knowledge. I am this great spiritual presence, first. I function through the personality when it is necessary and then when the doing is done, I return to the presence of who I really am. I do not get stuck in the personality. I remember to return.

- * I am made from the light of creation. I am a mirror of that light and a tremendous gift to existence. I am crossing over now into a new reality... returning to the eternal, wholesome self.
